Notification of Disclosure of Personal Information to Statistics Canada

Statistics Canada is the national statistical agency. As such, Statistics Canada carries out hundreds of surveys each year on a wide range of matters, including education.

It is essential to be able to follow students across time and institutions to understand, for example, the factors affecting enrolment demands at post-secondary institutions. The increased emphasis on accountability for public investment means that it is also important to understand 'outcomes'. In order to conduct such studies, Statistics Canada asks all colleges and universities to provide data on students and graduates. Institutions collect and provide to Statistics Canada student identification information (student's name, student ID number, Social Insurance Number), student contact information (address and telephone number), student demographic characteristics, enrolment information.

The federal Statistics Act provides the legal authority for Statistics Canada to obtain access to personal information held by educational institutions. The information may be used for statistical purposes only, and the confidentiality provisions of the Statistics Act prevent the information from being released in any way that would identify a student.

Students may contact Statistics Canada via email if they have any questions at: statcan.PSIS-SIEP.statcan@canada.ca.

It is with the goodwill and collaboration of postsecondary institutions that we will reach our goal of providing reliable postsecondary education information required to plan for our future.

Message from the President

Thank you for considering University College of the North (UCN). We have a lot to offer when you become a student at UCN!

As a student, you are the heart of our institution and we will provide you with a unique and welcoming learning community. Many of our students tell us that they feel that they are part of a family at UCN and that our small class size and individual supports provide an unprecedented learning opportunity.

We value the relationship we develop with you but we also know that we are a part of a broader effort to empower you and help you to achieve your full potential to make a difference in your life and in the lives of your family and community.

We know you want an education that is meaningful; so we are making significant changes to ensure academic quality and a positive student experience are at the forefront of everything we do.

What we offer you is a personalized learning experience where you can connect, interact and learn in a comfortable environment.

On behalf of the Council of Elders, Learning Council, Governing Council, faculty, administration and staff, I welcome you to UCN and offer you my best wishes on a successful year ahead.

Sincerely,

Doug Lauvstad,
President & Vice Chancellor
