PROGRAM DESCRIPTION:

UCN OCN Training Centre in Opaskwayak Cree Nation will be offering Year 1 of the Bachelor of Arts degree program on a part-time basis starting in September 2021. This degree provides students with a solid background in the liberal arts, allowing them to gain a broad base of knowledge, as well as general skills in the areas of reading and understanding, analysis and evaluation, problem solving, and communication skills. Students will focus on Aboriginal and Northern Studies throughout the duration of their courses. Program delivery will be a combination of zoom and face to face training based on Covid-19 restrictions. Zoom training will take place from student's own home or workspace, not at the UCN Centre.
