Registered students will take this training from their home or workspace. Students will not be attending at one of our UCN campuses or centres. Handouts and meeting login information will be emailed to registered students by the instructor. Students must have a laptop with reliable internet capable of connecting to Zoom training with use of microphone and video.

Date: September 27 – December 20, 2021

Monday & Thursday evenings from 6:00pm – 9:30pm (no class on statutory holidays)

Course Cost: $2170.00 (plus $108.50 GST) per person at time of registration.

CITT Canadian Transportation & Logistics Fundamentals Micro-Credential provides a foundation of knowledge for those looking to enter or build their skills in the rapidly growing supply chain, logistics, and transportation sector. Students will build in-demand competencies employers need and want, identified by CITT. This industry recognized credential will equip you with the skills and credibility to succeed and advance in this rapidly growing sector. Career opportunities can be found in shipping and receiving departments, railways, airports, retail warehouses, manufacturers and much more that have experienced increased demand with the movement of goods.

As both courses are included in the training you will need to register for both.

- ✓ Transportation Systems (EXT.0323 SR21) helps professionals streamline decision-making to minimize errors that can lead to longer transit times, increased costs of transit, unnecessary inventory carrying cost, fines for non-compliance, and increased handling and damage.
- ✓ Logistics Processes (EXT.0321 SR21) helps professionals learn how to move products and related information through multi-faceted supply chain operations from source to destination—on a national and international scale—using single or multi-modal systems in a safe, time and cost-efficient manner.

To register or for further information
Contact Lindsay Cook at 204-734-4419 or lcook@ucn.ca
