

Lorimer Award

UNIVERSITY COLLEGE OF THE NORTH
www.ucn.ca/awards

The Lorimer Award is presented by University College of the North in recognition of outstanding service to education in Northern Manitoba (north of the 53rd parallel).

The award was named in honour of the late Dr. W.C. Lorimer, a distinguished Manitoba educator, who served as Deputy Minister of Education from 1967 to 1978.

The recipient of this award will have made contributions in the educational field that are well beyond the call of duty and shall have had a major constructive impact. Their work, past and/or present, has involved a very substantial and continued commitment to Northern education.

Nominees may be a student, former student, employee of University College of the North or a member of the community whose work fits the purpose of this award.

Nominations will be accepted until March 15, 2023 at 4:30 pm (CST) and must include a completed UCN Lorimer Award Nomination Form and three letters of support (not from a relative). All letters of support must provide concrete examples and clearly outline how the nominee meets the award criteria and why the nominee should be chosen to receive this award.

Please note: the committee will base its decisions solely on the information and examples provided in the nomination package. Only the successful nominee will be contacted.
