

SWAAC Student Leadership Award Pre-Selection CRITERIA & CHECKLIST

www.ucn.ca/awards

The Senior Women Academic Administrators of Canada (SWAAC) Student Leadership Award is open to all women students enrolled in a post-secondary program at University College of the North who have demonstrated outstanding leadership in the college or general community, while maintaining exemplary academic records. Pre-selection will be done by University College of the North and one successful applicant will be forwarded to SWAAC for consideration; elected members of the SWAAC Executive Committee (or its delegates) will do final selections. Deadline for pre-selection application is November 15, 2023 at 4:30 pm (CST). Selection is based on outstanding academic performance and evidence of leadership, including but not limited to such things as: executive positions in student organizations, participation on committees (student committees and college committees), organization of special events, conferences, etc., involvement in advocacy groups, involvement in volunteer organizations, within the campus setting and/or in the general community, innovative/creative problem-solving or overcoming personal challenges. Applicants are required to submit a completed UCN SWAAC Student Leadership Award Pre-Selection application and provide three letters of reference, biographical data*, curriculum vitae, and academic records –university/college unofficial transcript(s). Award amount: $4,000.

Biographical information usually includes information about former and current studies, areas of interest, research publications, other awards, interests outside the university, and community or volunteer work. It's usually in a narrative form, about 1-2 pages in length, and is an opportunity for the nominee to tell the adjudication committee some things about herself, and to explain at greater length her background/interests/passions/ambitions/volunteer work.*
